

New Advertisements.

For the Holidays!

DEATS & Co.,

have just opened an immense assortment of Ladies' and Gents Gold Watches, Silver and Nickel Watches, Clocks, Silverware,

Jewelry, Rings, Spectacles, Eye-Glasses, &c., &c., which they are offering at the very lowest cash prices. Call early for first choice and Best Bargains.

REPAIRING

of all kinds promptly attended to at low charges and all work warranted.

P. O. BUILDING, Weissport, - - - Penna.

Railroad Guide.

Philadelphia & Reading R. R.

Arrangement of Passenger Trains. NOVEMBER 16th, 1918.

Trains leave Allentown as follows: (Via PERKIOMEN RAILROAD.)

For Philadelphia at 4:45, 6:30, 7:45 a. m., and 7:10 p. m.

SUNDAYS. For Philadelphia at 9:00 a. m. and 3:30 p. m.

For Harrisburg and waypoints, 9:00 p. m. For Philadelphia 7:15 a. m.

Trains for Allentown leave as follows: (Via PERKIOMEN RAILROAD.)

Leave Philadelphia at 4:45, 6:30, 7:45 a. m., and 7:10 p. m.

SUNDAYS. For Philadelphia, 8:00 a. m., 3:30, 4:30 and 12:10 p. m.

Leave Reading, 7:15, 10:15 a. m., 2:00, 3:30, and 12:10 p. m.

Leave Harrisburg, 5:05, 7:55, 9:30 a. m., 1:45 and 4:30 p. m.

Leave Lancaster, 7:30 a. m., 12:30 and 10:40 p. m.

Leave Columbia, 7:20 a. m., 12:40 and 2:40 p. m.

From King Street Depot.

SUNDAYS. Leave Reading, 9:00 a. m.

Leave Harrisburg, 9:00 a. m.

Trains via "Perkiomen Railroad" marked (P) run to and from Depot, North and Green streets, Philadelphia, other trains to and from Broad Street Depot.

The 1:45 and 3:30 p. m. trains from Allentown, and the 1:35 and 5:15 p. m. train from Philadelphia, via Perkiomen Railroad, have through cars to and from Philadelphia.

J. K. WOOLLEN, General Manager.

C. G. HANCOCK, Chief Passenger Ticket Agent, May 27th, 1918.

"Original Cheap Cash Store."

Only 4 days more till Christmas!

Since the opening of our Holiday Display our Store has been thronged daily with customers, and on all sides we hear the remarks, "Oh, how grand!" "Isn't it handsome?" etc., etc.

Jewelry & Silverware!

Our stock is larger than any jeweler's in this town, and from 50 to 60 per cent cheaper, as we do not figure a jeweler's per centage on these goods.

Plush goods in great variety. Mirrors, Toilet Cases, Toilet Bottle Sets, Comb and Brush Sets, Odor Stands, Whisk Broom Holders, Work Boxes, Box Paper, Odor Cases, Pocket Books, Hand Bags, Card Cases, Cigar Cases, Satin-lined Wicker Work Baskets, Anglet Bags, Hair Pin Baskets, Lunch Baskets, Hairnet Baskets, and an endless variety of Perfumery, Toilet Soap, Combs, Brushes, Neck-wear, Silk, Cotton and Linen Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, Hosiery, Towels, Napkins, Skirts, Knit Goods, Shawls, Boots, Shoes, Slippers, etc., etc.

Do not fail to pay us a visit and inspect our LARGE and VARIED ASSORTMENT OF GOODS.

J. T. NUSBAUM, Opp. Public Square, Bank Street, Lehighton, Pa., June 7, 1884-17.

The Carbonado.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1884.

—SPECIAL NOTICE.—Persons making payments to this office by money orders or postal notes will please make them payable at the Weissport Post Office, as the Lehighton office is not a money order office.

Our Neighborhood in Brief.

—The water was drawn out of the L-2 high Canal, for the winter, on Saturday.

—Gents' handsome gold watches at E. H. Hohl's, Mauch Chunk.

—The chickens and turkeys are beginning to tremble on account of wet weather.

—Lots of new goods not shown elsewhere at E. H. Hohl's, Mauch Chunk.

—The Bethlehem Iron Company's steel works are again running six days a week.

—Fancy toilet articles for Christmas present at H. Horn's drug store.

—Miss Mary Shultz, who has been at Millersburg for some time past has returned home.

—For enough of childhood or old age, Judew's Tar Syrup is the best. For sale at Thomas' drug store.

—The Chapman State Company, of Northampton county, has reduced wages 12 1/2 per cent.

—Beautiful parlor hanging lamps and chandeliers, suitable for holiday presents at Dr. C. T. Horn's drug store.

—John Hays will run Peter Whitehead, of Allentown, 100 yards for a purse of $100, tomorrow (Saturday).

—A rough or cold that can not be cured by Judew's Tar Syrup is unknown. For sale by T. D. Thomas.

—The Stratton Store Company on Thursday last week, sold 1120 steel rails, weighing 60 pounds each.

—A new lot of CLOCKS, WATCHES and JEWELRY just received at S. HAGAMAN'S Store, Lehighton, Pa.

—Call at Dr. C. T. Horn's Central Drug Store and look at his stock before purchasing elsewhere.

—The total shipments of slate for the fiscal year ending December 10 from Lehigh and Northampton counties amount to 250,000 square feet.

—For silver knives, forks and spoons go to E. H. Hohl's, Mauch Chunk.

—Samuel B. Liebler, of Tunkhannock, a promising young civil engineer, was killed in the Vesling tunnel, on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, recently, by a fall of rock.

—A rough or cold of three Millinery Store at Alverta Graver, Bank Street, Lehighton, for Hats and Bonnets.

—Persons getting the Advocate through the mail will please note the date on direction labels, and remit accordingly. Don't forget.

—Butcher—

—The Band made about $12 on their raffle last Saturday evening.

—The masons at work on the foundation of Sweeney & Son's new building, are nearly finished.

—A grand raffle for a lot of turkeys comes off to-night (Friday) at A. P. Claus', opposite the L. & S. Depot.

—The store windows along Bank street are jammed full of beautiful articles for holiday presents.

—Don't fail to see new goods. New stock of gold pens and pencils at E. H. Hohl's, Mauch Chunk.

—Our orchestra propose giving a talent festival some time in February.

—On Friday night thieves broke into the cigar store of Jonas K. Amerer, on Pine street, Catawago, and stole 1000 cigars, 25 wooden pipes, 5 tin match boxes, 3 pounds of smoking tobacco, 10 pennies and 6 pounds of plug tobacco.

—Look at your direction tab on this paper. It shows how much you owe.

—Dear hunting ended for this season on the 10th. Squirrels, rabbits, woodcock and partridges or pheasants may be shot until January 1st.

—A variety of books, very cheap, at the Novelty Store, next door to the Advocate office.

—The grain market closed as follows in Chicago on Saturday, last for immediate and future deliveries: Wheat, Dec. 70 1/2, January 70, December 37 1/2, January 37 1/2, in Philadelphia, same day, wheat, 77 1/2 @ 80 @ 81 @ 82 @ 83.

—Bright as a fresh blooming daisy—the daughter of Mrs. W. Rendenbush accompanied by her daughter, fell, for Philadelphia on last Tuesday morning, to be gone about a week.

—The Last Law Passed was Law's agent, who is passing through the State introduced Law's Celebrated Bluing, used for bluing, teaching and coloring, and makes good ink. For sale at C. T. Horn's and at the Novelty Store, Bankway.

—Claus & Bro., The Tailors, still have a few of those justly celebrated $10 suitings on hand.

—For the week ending on Dec. 15, 1884, there was 159,848 tons of coal shipped over the Lehigh Valley Railroad, making a total of 296,925 tons in date and showing an increase of 45,242 as compared with same time last year.

—Only $10.00 cash for an all-wool suit at H. H. Peters', Post-office building, Lehighton.

—A gala day for Trachville will be on the 26th of December, when Thomas Snyder will run a 100 yards foot race with Peter Whitehead, of Allentown, for a purse of $40.00; following this there will be a shooting match for a fine lot of turkeys and the amusements of the day to wind up with a grand ball on the evening.

—If you wish a handsome book, fancy leather stationery or Xmas and New Year Cards, or anything in the way of Holiday Goods, for young or old—rich or poor, call on E. F. Lockenbach, 61 Broadway, Mauch Chunk, where the stock is unsurpassed. Send for catalogue.

—The Saxon Iron Company's property, at Hellertown, Northampton county, was sold at Sheriff's sale Saturday. The Thomas Iron Company purchased the Furnaces, ore lands, houses, etc., for $1, subject to a mortgage. The company's railroad and several tracts of land in Upper Saxon, Lehigh county, were also purchased for $1, subject to a mortgage, by Samuel Thomas.

—While in Mauch Chunk we stopped to see our friend E. H. Hohl, the jewel merchant, and judge from the way in which he is doing his fine stock and low prices, he must be making his business a grand success.

—H. H. Peters, at the Post-office building, Lehighton, will make you an all-wool suit for only $10 cash, if you order now.

—The Sunday Worker is the name of a new candidate for public favor just started in Hazleton. As its name implies it is a Sunday paper and presents a very neat and readable appearance. Its proprietors, Messrs. J. S. Foster & Co., have the Advocate's best wishes for the success of their new venture.

—Silverware, elegant new goods at E. H. Hohl's, Mauch Chunk.

—A boy aged fifteen years, named Samuel H. Geiger, who was employed at Broker No. 9, Lancaster, had his arm mangled from the shoulder to the hand Thursday morning of last week. He slipped off a plank walk and fell between two cog wheels. The unfortunate lad was taken to his home and the arm amputated at the shoulder.

—Claus & Bro., The Tailors, are making up elegant suitings, in the very latest styles and best workmanship, for $16, sold last year for $24. Call and see them.

—Charles Geiger, a young boy of this place, had his leg broken on last Tuesday morning. It seems that he was standing on the front part of Jim Fatzinger's express wagon, at the Valley Depot, when the horse took fright, and the boy was thrown off the wagon under the horse's heels and kicked the leg, breaking as above stated. Dr. H. H. Geiger refused the leg.

—See E. H. Hohl's new stock of jewelry, sea pens, neck-chains, scarf pins and bracelets.

—Wm. M. Wannemacher, the temperance advocate who delivered several highly interesting temperance lectures in this place about a year ago, died at Norristown, Pa., on Wednesday evening, Dec. 11, 1884, aged thirty years. He was licensed Baptist minister, and was engaged to take the part of the Saviour, in the production of Salmi Morse's "Passion Play." But the play was never produced on account of the manager's inability to procure a license.

—Frank Leibenguth, on Bank street, has just received a car load of New York State Apples of the finest quality, which he is selling at very low prices. Call early if you wish to secure first choice. 4w.

—Don't fail to see E. H. Hohl's new goods: store, South-east street, Mauch Chunk.

—The Lehigh Valley Coal Company has struck a rich vein of coal at Mountain Colliery, near Ashland, Schuylkill county, from which it expects to ship 150 cars daily and employ 250 men. Bappanahock Colliery, near Garrettsville, owned by the same company, is almost completed, and will ship 250 cars daily and employ 300 men. Lily, Lehigh & Co.'s colliery at Park Place, near Mahanoy City, is nearing completion and will make daily shipments of 250 cars.

WEISSPORT LETTER.

—H. B. Ewert, of the Weissport House, is making some improvements on his hotel.

—C. H. Nussbaum was to the city lately buying an entire new stock of confectionery and holiday goods.

—C. W. Sowell, the very accommodating and pleasant gentleman representing the Phila. & Reading RR Co., as a general, is well liked and spoken of with the highest regards by all who have any business transactions with him. He is intelligent and attentive to his business, hence he gives satisfaction to all. Just the right man in the right place.

—W. C. Weins occupied the pulpit in the Evangelical church on Sunday evening. He preached from the text, "I have heard these blasphemies." The sermon was well calculated, full of salient points and replete with allusions to those who are in the habit of taking the name of the "Lord thy God in vain." It was a good sermon; and we hope that it will bear fruit for many years to come.

—Miss Lizzie Lord, of New Boston, is visiting friends here.

—Mr. B. Meyer fell on the ice in front of the Gilbert House barn last Tuesday and broke his leg.

—S. C. Tobias, of town, and Mr. Alice Weyant, of Philadelphia, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony last Saturday, at the home of the bride. The happy couple arrived here at 6:30. They were accompanied by the bride's father and a party of singers soon after arriving, and then on Wednesday evening by the Citizens' band. His many friends wish them a pleasant voyage.

—A. J. Rowland, of Mauch Chunk, and R. L. Colburn, of Lehighton, spent Sunday with friends in this place. Dick says that to spend Sunday in town is as good as a week's vacation.

—Thos. Rose fell down on Tuesday for the west. We understand his intentions are to capture a Michigan deer before returning. Good Luck Thos. Hoos.

—Mr. F. Balli, of Nesquehoning, spent last Sunday in the valley.

—Miss Meyer, of Lewistown, was the guest of Miss A. Miller, of New Mahoning.

—Jacob Evert, of New Mahoning was visiting friends in Stiemersville last Sunday.

—Some of our good hunters in the valley went out hunting rabbits, and knocked down stone fences. I think they ought not to go hunting again.

—Some of our young boys are talking about going away, but don't know which way to go—east or west. On Saturday night they went west on Sunday night.

—Mr. Daniel Rex, of New Mahoning, was in Tamaqua to purchase some clothes for the winter.

—L. H. is yet in the saw-mill business.

—The land at New Mahoning is going from house to house to play on New Year's day.

—Messrs. Oddy and Miller were promulgating in the valley last Sunday.

—Mr. F. D. Klingman, of New Mahoning, is called the best rafter in the valley for turkeys. JOSEPH.

—Lower Townsenville Items.

—A bold robbery was committed last Friday week, at Bowman's Station, by unknown persons who stole $140 in cash, while Mr. Weston, agent, was at dinner after returning he found his office door pried open and money gone. No clue of the robbers have been so far ascertained. Mr. Weston was held responsible for the money that was stolen, and lost his position through said affair. Another agent has been appointed.

—Butchering is no longer neglected by farmers, owing to hog cholera, which is prevalent in some of our townships. A number of hogs are reported.

—John Stoenig died on Tuesday morning, at his home, he was afflicted with dropsy.

—Joseph Bowman passed through here collecting funds last Saturday a week. They are to be used to liquidate the debt of repairing the basement of St. John's church, amounting to $133.00.

—Wedding Bells.

—Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the Church of the Nativity, Fountain Hill, Bethlehem, Miss Annie Beukler Lamber, daughter of Dr. Robert A. Lambertson, president of Lehigh Valley, was married to Mr. Rolin Henry Wilbur, son of E. P. Wilbur, president of the Lehigh Valley Railroad. The church and altar were decorated with rare and beautiful flowers. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. C. K. Nelson, rector of the church, assisted by Bishop Howe and Assistant Bishop Ballou. Dr. Lambertson gave the bride away. The groom's best man was Mr. Francis H. Dairyman, of Lock Haven. The ushers were Messrs. William B. Lambertson and James M. Lambertson, brothers of the bride; Ed. M. Mellivane, of Reading; G. B. Landerman, Jr., of South Bethlehem; M. A. Dellow, Jr., of Reading, and William A. Rice, of Upper Lehigh. The bridesmaids were Misses Isabella E. Wilbur, daughter of the groom; M. Pauline Coppe, of South Bethlehem; Marie Hedinger, of Bethlehem; Eliza Buehler, of Harrisburg; Jennie Gilroy, of Lebanon, and Helen Rice, of Pottsville. A reception was held at President Lambertson's residence, in the University park, which was largely attended. The bride's presents were numerous, elegant and costly.

—Mehoning Items.

—We wish one and all a Merry Christmas. —Strunk, of Lehighton, was the guest of Aaron Snyder over Sunday.

—Squire Musselman had his residence recently repaired last week.

—The catechism class in St. John's church numbers twenty-one.

—A shooting match came off at Fentner's on last Saturday. The shot-lark was good—some of the best marksmen in the county being present.

Weatherly Chaps.

—The members of Weatherly Lodge, No. 691, I. O. O. F., celebrated the 16th anniversary of the organization of their lodge in this place last Sunday with divine services in the M. E. church. They met at Oak Hall, and at ten o'clock went from there to the church dressed in full uniform. Bro. E. P. Swartz, the pastor, officiating. The text was "Am I my brother's keeper?" The subject was ably handled and made lasting impressions on all who attended.

—Caster's skating rink will be opened on Tuesday evening, December 23. The building is 40x120 feet, with a skating surface of 4200 square feet, and has ample accommodations for 300 skaters and seating capacity for 800 people.

—The L. V. RR. Co.'s bridge builders came here last Saturday evening, and on Sunday built a bridge across Black Creek, two miles above this place.

—Blas. Caster has leased the dam of W. W. Chalkley for the purpose of filling our ice houses this winter.

—Miss Lizzie Lord, of New Boston, is visiting friends here.

—Mr. B. Meyer fell on the ice in front of the Gilbert House barn last Tuesday and broke his leg.

—S. C. Tobias, of town, and Mr. Alice Weyant, of Philadelphia, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony last Saturday, at the home of the bride. The happy couple arrived here at 6:30. They were accompanied by the bride's father and a party of singers soon after arriving, and then on Wednesday evening by the Citizens' band. His many friends wish them a pleasant voyage.

—A. J. Rowland, of Mauch Chunk, and R. L. Colburn, of Lehighton, spent Sunday with friends in this place. Dick says that to spend Sunday in town is as good as a week's vacation.

—Thos. Rose fell down on Tuesday for the west. We understand his intentions are to capture a Michigan deer before returning. Good Luck Thos. Hoos.

—Mr. F. Balli, of Nesquehoning, spent last Sunday in the valley.

—Miss Meyer, of Lewistown, was the guest of Miss A. Miller, of New Mahoning.

—Jacob Evert, of New Mahoning was visiting friends in Stiemersville last Sunday.

—Some of our good hunters in the valley went out hunting rabbits, and knocked down stone fences. I think they ought not to go hunting again.

—Some of our young boys are talking about going away, but don't know which way to go—east or west. On Saturday night they went west on Sunday night.

—Mr. Daniel Rex, of New Mahoning, was in Tamaqua to purchase some clothes for the winter.

—L. H. is yet in the saw-mill business.

—The land at New Mahoning is going from house to house to play on New Year's day.

—Messrs. Oddy and Miller were promulgating in the valley last Sunday.

—Mr. F. D. Klingman, of New Mahoning, is called the best rafter in the valley for turkeys. JOSEPH.

—Lower Townsenville Items.

—A bold robbery was committed last Friday week, at Bowman's Station, by unknown persons who stole $140 in cash, while Mr. Weston, agent, was at dinner after returning he found his office door pried open and money gone. No clue of the robbers have been so far ascertained. Mr. Weston was held responsible for the money that was stolen, and lost his position through said affair. Another agent has been appointed.

—Butchering is no longer neglected by farmers, owing to hog cholera, which is prevalent in some of our townships. A number of hogs are reported.

—John Stoenig died on Tuesday morning, at his home, he was afflicted with dropsy.

—Joseph Bowman passed through here collecting funds last Saturday a week. They are to be used to liquidate the debt of repairing the basement of St. John's church, amounting to $133.00.

—Wedding Bells.

—Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the Church of the Nativity, Fountain Hill, Bethlehem, Miss Annie Beukler Lamber, daughter of Dr. Robert A. Lambertson, president of Lehigh Valley, was married to Mr. Rolin Henry Wilbur, son of E. P. Wilbur, president of the Lehigh Valley Railroad. The church and altar were decorated with rare and beautiful flowers. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. C. K. Nelson, rector of the church, assisted by Bishop Howe and Assistant Bishop Ballou. Dr. Lambertson gave the bride away. The groom's best man was Mr. Francis H. Dairyman, of Lock Haven. The ushers were Messrs. William B. Lambertson and James M. Lambertson, brothers of the bride; Ed. M. Mellivane, of Reading; G. B. Landerman, Jr., of South Bethlehem; M. A. Dellow, Jr., of Reading, and William A. Rice, of Upper Lehigh. The bridesmaids were Misses Isabella E. Wilbur, daughter of the groom; M. Pauline Coppe, of South Bethlehem; Marie Hedinger, of Bethlehem; Eliza Buehler, of Harrisburg; Jennie Gilroy, of Lebanon, and Helen Rice, of Pottsville. A reception was held at President Lambertson's residence, in the University park, which was largely attended. The bride's presents were numerous, elegant and costly.

—Mehoning Items.

—We wish one and all a Merry Christmas. —Strunk, of Lehighton, was the guest of Aaron Snyder over Sunday.

—Squire Musselman had his residence recently repaired last week.

—The catechism class in St. John's church numbers twenty-one.

—A shooting match came off at Fentner's on last Saturday. The shot-lark was good—some of the best marksmen in the county being present.

WEISSPORT LETTER.

—H. B. Ewert, of the Weissport House, is making some improvements on his hotel.

—C. H. Nussbaum was to the city lately buying an entire new stock of confectionery and holiday goods.

—C. W. Sowell, the very accommodating and pleasant gentleman representing the Phila. & Reading RR Co., as a general, is well liked and spoken of with the highest regards by all who have any business transactions with him. He is intelligent and attentive to his business, hence he gives satisfaction to all. Just the right man in the right place.

—W. C. Weins occupied the pulpit in the Evangelical church on Sunday evening. He preached from the text, "I have heard these blasphemies." The sermon was well calculated, full of salient points and replete with allusions to those who are in the habit of taking the name of the "Lord thy God in vain." It was a good sermon; and we hope that it will bear fruit for many years to come.

—Miss Lizzie Lord, of New Boston, is visiting friends here.

—Mr. B. Meyer fell on the ice in front of the Gilbert House barn last Tuesday and broke his leg.

—S. C. Tobias, of town, and Mr. Alice Weyant, of Philadelphia, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony last Saturday, at the home of the bride. The happy couple arrived here at 6:30. They were accompanied by the bride's father and a party of singers soon after arriving, and then on Wednesday evening by the Citizens' band. His many friends wish them a pleasant voyage.

—A. J. Rowland, of Mauch Chunk, and R. L. Colburn, of Lehighton, spent Sunday with friends in this place. Dick says that to spend Sunday in town is as good as a week's vacation.

—Thos. Rose fell down on Tuesday for the west. We understand his intentions are to capture a Michigan deer before returning. Good Luck Thos. Hoos.

—Mr. F. Balli, of Nesquehoning, spent last Sunday in the valley.

—Miss Meyer, of Lewistown, was the guest of Miss A. Miller, of New Mahoning.

—Jacob Evert, of New Mahoning was visiting friends in Stiemersville last Sunday.

—Some of our good hunters in the valley went out hunting rabbits, and knocked down stone fences. I think they ought not to go hunting again.

—Some of our young boys are talking about going away, but don't know which way to go—east or west. On Saturday night they went west on Sunday night.

—Mr. Daniel Rex, of New Mahoning, was in Tamaqua to purchase some clothes for the winter.

—L. H. is yet in the saw-mill business.

—The land at New Mahoning is going from house to house to play on New Year's day.

—Messrs. Oddy and Miller were promulgating in the valley last Sunday.

—Mr. F. D. Klingman, of New Mahoning, is called the best rafter in the valley for turkeys. JOSEPH.

—Lower Townsenville Items.

—A bold robbery was committed last Friday week, at Bowman's Station, by unknown persons who stole $140 in cash, while Mr. Weston, agent, was at dinner after returning he found his office door pried open and money gone. No clue of the robbers have been so far ascertained. Mr. Weston was held responsible for the money that was stolen, and lost his position through said affair. Another agent has been appointed.